

Sakthi foundation – cac
Kooal Alagar Vishnu temple

This temple dedicated to Lord Vishnu and Mahalaxmi is very near to Periyar bus stand in Madurai city.

This temple is being referred in mythologies and epics.

This temple celebrates Vishnu for taking the incarnation of Matsya avadharam - Fish.

Pandiya dynasty accepted fish as their emblem.

Lord Vishnu is in a very gigantic form seated with his consorts Sreedevi [Laxmi] and Bhoo Devi [Mother Earth]

The scantum tower is called Astanga Vimaanam one of the rare Dravidian style temple.

In Vaishnava tradition this temple is considered to be OM kaara - Pranava kaara shrine.

Goddess Laxmi is celebrated as Madhura valli [a sweet lovely mother]

Lord Vishnu is named as Koodal Alagar - Koodal is a name for Madurai city. Alagar - handsome man.

